TRIP DATES

PACK A PENCIL. NOTICE EVERYTHING. ✨

Games, drawing spaces, local clues, and family missions made for this exact trip.

A thoughtful pace for age 5

You're a brave explorer in Singapore, a hot green city where giant trees light up at night and lion-fish statues spit water into the sea! A grown-up can help you read the clues. Let's go spot, draw, and count!

LOCAL WORD

Shiok! (say "shee-ok") - it means "awesome!" in Singlish. Shout it when something tastes great or looks amazing.

LOCAL CARE CLUE

At temples and mosques, take off your shoes and whisper - it's how we say respect here.

YOUR ADVENTURE AT A GLANCE

- 1 Giant Tree Sculptures That Glow
- 2 The Lion That Is Also a Fish
- 3 Count Your Way Across the Wavy Bridge
- 4 Henderson Waves Bridge: Spot the Wavy Wood
- 5 Maxwell Food Centre: Hawker Bingo and Colour

FAMILY EXPLORERS

Explorer 1 (age 5) / same place, different ways to play

How it works: a quick game while you wait in line, two hands-on games once you arrive, then a calm page to unwind after - no reading required until your child is ready.

Real places become real adventures - that's the whole idea.

GROWN-UP

Pack a light raincoat - sudden warm showers happen here.

FAMILY LENS

Explorer 1: points and counts one repeated detail at the giant tree sculptures. Grown-up: tally or read the prompt. Swap who explains the result.

Supertree Grove: Spot the Sky-High Garden

Count While You Wait

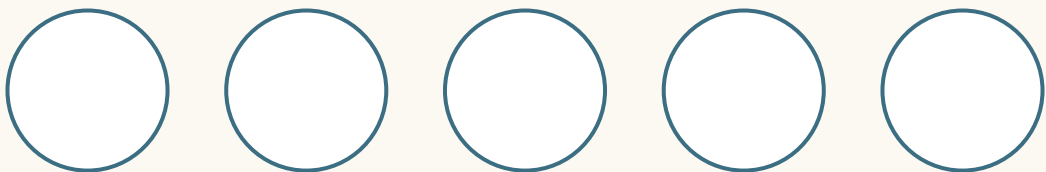

Count one repeated detail near the giant tree sculptures.

YOUR SECRET OBJECT:

SOMETHING PURPLE AND SPIKY

BONUS QUEST

Count how many spiky balls hang from one branch!

I counted

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Flower Dome here is the biggest glass greenhouse on Earth.
- Supertree Grove is free to walk around - no ticket needed!
- These gardens sit on 101 hectares of land that used to be sea.

Found It!

Here it is! The purple spiky flower is a tropical orchid - Singapore's national flower, Vanda Miss Joaquim, grows in gardens like this one!

CHAT ABOUT IT

- What did the orchid feel like when you pointed at it - soft or spiky?
- If you were a tiny bug, would you sleep inside that flower?

Merlion Park: Draw the Magic Water

Count While You Wait

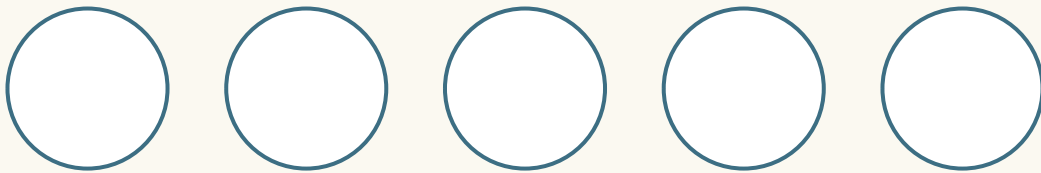

Count one repeated detail near the lion-fish statue.

YOUR SECRET OBJECT:

A TINY SECOND MERLION

● BONUS QUEST

Whisper to it - what do you think it would say back?

I counted

DID YOU KNOW?

- The main Merlion is 8.6 metres tall - that's five grown-ups standing on shoulders!
- It was born in 1972, then moved 120 metres to this spot in 2002.
- Singapura means "lion city" in Sanskrit - but real lions never lived here!

Found It!

You found it! The small "cub" Merlion hides behind its mother. Two Merlions guard this park together!

CHAT ABOUT IT

- If the baby Merlion could swim away, where would it go?
- What would you name the two Merlions if they were your pets?

I counted

DID YOU KNOW?

- This bridge stands 36 metres above the road - that's as high as a 12-floor building!
- It is Singapore's tallest pedestrian bridge, opened in 2008.
- The wood is called Balau - a strong tropical tree wood.

Found It!

You found it! The curved wooden shells are hidden seats inside each wave bump - perfect for resting halfway across!

CHAT ABOUT IT

- Did the shell feel like a cave, a boat, or a dinosaur rib?
- If you built a tiny house inside, what would you put in it?

- The bridge stands 36 metres above the road - taller than a 10-floor building!
- It opened in 2008, so it is younger than your grown-up.
- Balau wood from the rainforest was used for the bridge deck.

Found It!

Here it is! The wavy wooden shapes are the bridge's special Balau wood slats. They curve up and down like real ocean waves!
