Games, drawing spaces, local clues and family missions made for this exact trip.

A thoughtful pace for age 5

Singapore is a sunny city-state with a garden full of giant tree-shaped towers. Let's look up, count, and chat about the Supertrees!

LOCAL WORD

Makan (MAH-kahn): to eat, in Malay

LOCAL CARE CLUE

Keep your voice gentle, stay on the paths with your grown-up, and never pick the plants.

YOUR ADVENTURE AT A GLANCE

- 1 Supertree Grove: Giant Tree Towers
- 2 Singapore Zoo: Orangutans in the Rainforest
- 3 Chinatown Lanterns and Shophouse Shutters
- 4 Hawker Centre Food Adventure: Stall Signs and Tissue Packets
- 5 Bumboat Ride to Pulau Ubin Island

• What to bring

Bring pencils or colored pencils, this booklet, and about 5-10 unhurried minutes at each stop.

• How it works

a quick game while you wait in line, games to play once you arrive, then a calm page to unwind after. No reading needed until your child is ready.

TREAT TRAIL

Every game brings a treat closer

Colour the dots as your family plays. At the end of each day, add its sticker and write the reward.
